Paul Is Arrested In Jerusalem

by Luke Wayne. 05-19-2020. Acts 21-26 describes the Apostle Paul's arrest in Jerusalem and his eventual transfer to the local capital of Caesarea Maritima where he undergoes a series of hearings and examinations before the Roman leaders there. While this narrative has been doubted and scrutinized by critics for generations, archaeology and other ancient historical sources only corroborate rather than conflicting with the details given in the New Testament account.
